ADLER & COLVIN

Andrew Snell

Associate

Andrew Snell advises clients on a broad variety of matters involving nonprofit and tax-exempt organizations, including formation, applying for and maintaining tax-exempt status, grant-making, corporate governance, and related matters.

EDUCATION

- J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, cum laude, 2024
- B.S., University of Kansas – School of Business, 2021

PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining Adler & Colvin, Mr. Snell served as an attorney in the EEE division of the Office of Chief Counsel at the Internal Revenue Service, focusing on the federal tax law governing a wide range of tax-exempt organizations. While at the IRS, he drafted public and private guidance regarding exempt purposes, conducted taxpayer conferences for private letter ruling submissions, and provided field support for tax litigation and determination letters.

OUTSIDE THE OFFICE

Outside of the office, Mr. Snell enjoys golfing, bouldering, and playing video games.

CONTACT INFORMATION

asnell@adlercolvin.com

(415) 421-7555

FAX (415) 421-0712

BAR ADMISSIONS

Mr. Snell is admitted to the bar in the District of Columbia.