CA AG Webinar on Avoiding Delinquency – Tuesday October 30, 2018

We're pleased to help publicize the first of what we hope will be many educational outreach efforts directed at charities by the California Attorney General's Office. It's a livestreaming webinar on avoiding delinquency with the Registry of Charitable Trusts, and perhaps even more important, how to fix a delinquency if one occurs. The webinar targets in particular organizations who don't have attorneys or tax professionals to take care of their filings. The livestream starts next Tuesday at 10:00 AM, so if you or anyone you know might find it helpful, you'll want to act quickly. The AG's office will be accepting audience questions live on-line. See the flyer above for more details.

We applaud this initiative by the AG to help charities stay or become compliant with their Registry filings, and we look forward to webinars on many more useful topics in the future.
