Greg Colvin named 2015 Outstanding Nonprofit Attorney

Adler & Colvin is proud to announce that Greg Colvin has been named the 2015 Outstanding Nonprofit Attorney by the Nonprofit Organizations Committee of the American Bar Association's Section on Business Law. The Business Law Section gives the Outstanding Nonprofit Lawyer Awards annually in several categories to those who have made outstanding contributions to the nonprofit sector and/or the development of nonprofit law.

Greg's award was for distinguished service as outside counsel to nonprofit organizations. His practice includes a special focus on political and lobbying activities of nonprofit organizations, fiscal sponsorship, donor advised funds, anonymous giving, grantmaking, and other issues that arise between individual donors and charities.

Congratulations to Greg for receiving this honor in recognition of the important role he continues to play in protecting and promoting the interests of exempt organizations nationwide.
