

Nancy E. McGlamery

Principal

Ms. McGlamery's clients include public charities, private foundations, grantmakers, nonprofit service providers, individual and corporate donors, nonprofit advocacy groups, and others. Her practice emphasizes corporate governance and federal and state tax law matters unique to nonprofit and tax-exempt organizations.

EDUCATION

- J.D., New York University, 2001; Notes Editor for the New York University Law Review
- B.A., English Literature, Swarthmore College, 1997

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Ms. McGlamery served for many years as Secretary of the Nonprofit Organizations Committee of the Business Law Section of the State Bar of California. She is a member of the Exempt Organizations Committee, Tax Law Section, American Bar Association, and the Bar Association of San Francisco.

SPEAKING & TEACHING

Ms. McGlamery has served as an adjunct faculty member in the Masters of Nonprofit Management program at the University of San Francisco, and frequently lectures for nonprofit professionals and legal advisors on tax and corporate governance issues affecting the sector.

PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Before joining Adler & Colvin, Ms. McGlamery practiced in the tax department of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP in New York City, where her practice focused primarily upon the tax aspects of foreign and domestic business acquisitions, reorganizations, and financing transactions.

CONTACT INFORMATION

✉ nmcglamery@adlercolvin.com

📞 (415) 421-7555

FAX 📠 (415) 421-0712

BAR ADMISSIONS

Ms. McGlamery is a member of the bar in the states of California and New York.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- Formation & Tax Exempt Status
- Nonprofit Governance & Ethics
- Private Foundations
- Tax Treatment of Lobbying & Political Activities
- International Charitable Transactions & Operations
- Unions, Associations, Clubs & Other Tax-Exempt Organizations