Re-Launching Fiscalsponsorship.com

My former law partner Greg Colvin officially retired from the practice of law and he's using his new-found time for plenty of other pursuits. From continuing to hike the Pacific Crest Trail, to working on an environmental project near and dear to him (as – what else – a fiscally sponsored project, of course), he is keeping rather busy. Latest on his list of Emeritus endeavors is the re-launch of a website originally begun back in 2005, where he'll be blogging (along with guest bloggers) about fiscal sponsorship, the universe, and everything.

You can check it out at www.fiscalsponsorship.com.
