

Robert A. Wexler

Principal

Mr. Wexler's practice focuses primarily on the areas of tax and corporate matters for nonprofits and their donors, with a particular emphasis on social enterprises, revenue-generating activities and private foundations.

EDUCATION

- J.D., Columbia University, 1985
- B.A., magna cum laude, Brown University, 1982; Phi Beta Kappa

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Mr. Wexler is a board member of Benetech, a Silicon Valley social enterprise. He is a member of the American Bar Association, and an active participant in the Tax Section's Exempt Organization Committee, where he recently served as Chair of the Committee. Mr. Wexler is also a member of the American Law Institute and an Advisor to the Restatement of the Law – Charitable and Nonprofit Organizations. He is also an Advisor to NYU's National Center of Philanthropy and the Law.

SPEAKING & TEACHING

Mr. Wexler is a lecturer in law at Stanford Law School, where he teaches the Law of Nonprofit Organizations. He has also taught courses at the University of San Francisco and in the LLM program at Golden Gate University. He is a frequent speaker at nationally recognized conferences on nonprofit law.

PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Before joining Adler & Colvin, Mr. Wexler practiced with two different San Francisco law firms from 1985 through 1992 as a tax lawyer representing exempt organizations, as well as individuals, corporations, and partnerships.

OUTSIDE THE OFFICE

CONTACT INFORMATION

✉ wexler@adlercolvin.com

☎ () -

BAR ADMISSIONS

Mr. Wexler is admitted to the bar in the state of California.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- › Public Charities
- › Private Foundations
- › Revenue Generating Activities
- › Social Enterprise
- › Attorney General, IRS, Franchise Tax Board, and Property Tax Proceedings
- › International Charitable Transactions & Operations

Mr. Wexler enjoys music and sports as well as strategy based games.