

Shea Loewen Lazarow

Associate

EDUCATION

- J.D., University of Ottawa, 2012
- B.A. (Hons), Anthropology and International Development Studies, Dalhousie University, 2006

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Ms. Loewen Lazarow is a member of the American Bar Association, the California State Bar Association, and the Bar Association of San Francisco.

SPEAKING & TEACHING

Ms. Loewen Lazarow is a guest lecturer with the Middlebury Institute for International Studies at Monterey, where she teaches social enterprise law.

PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Before joining Adler & Colvin, Ms. Loewen Lazarow was an associate with Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, where she represented renewable energy and social impact startup companies and coordinated pro bono activities. She has worked directly with many nonprofit organizations over the years, in Liberia, Ghana, India, Costa Rica, Swaziland, South Africa, Canada and the U.S., on issues spanning constitutional law reform, rule of law, women's rights, health, education, agriculture, and environmental matters.

OUTSIDE THE OFFICE

In her spare time, Ms. Loewen Lazarow enjoys novel writing, cooking experiments, hiking in the Marin Headlands near her home, and winning team sport participation awards.

CONTACT INFORMATION

✉ sloewen@adlercolvin.com

☎ (415) 421-7555

FAX (415) 421-0712

BAR ADMISSIONS

Ms. Loewen Lazarow is admitted to the bar in the State of California and to the bar in the Province of Ontario (Canada).

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- › Social Enterprise
- › Grantmaking & Social Investing
- › Nonprofit Governance & Ethics
- › Formation & Tax Exempt Status
- › Public Charities
- › Private Foundations
- › Nonprofit Structures, Relationships & Affiliations
- › International Charitable Transactions & Operations