

Shirley McLaughlin

Associate

Ms. McLaughlin specializes in Formation and Tax-Exempt Status, Public Charities, Private Foundations, Grantmaking and Social Investing, Social Enterprise, Nonprofit Structures, Relationships and Affiliations, and International Charitable Transactions and Operations.

EDUCATION

- J.D., cum laude, University of San Francisco School of Law, 2013
- B.A., Mills College, Oakland, 2006

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Ms. McLaughlin is a member of the American Bar Association, the California State Bar Association, and the Bar Association of San Francisco.

SPEAKING & TEACHING

Finding the right charitable vehicle for your clients – Oregon Community Foundation Philanthropy Forum, March 13, 2017

PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining Adler & Colvin, Ms. McLaughlin spent four years as a Director of Grants Administration for two of the largest community foundations in the country. In those roles, she was responsible for compliance with state and federal rules and regulations for public charity and donor advised fund distributions to charities and charitable projects around the world. This included extensive expenditure responsibility and public charity equivalency determinations, 501(h) lobbying and advocacy tracking and reporting, supporting organization grantmaking and due diligence, as well as evaluating other nonprofit compliance issues such as endowment restrictions, gift solicitations, fiscal sponsorships and designated funds.

CONTACT INFORMATION

✉ smclaughlin@adlercolvin.com

☎ (415) 421-7555

FAX (415) 421-0712

BAR ADMISSIONS

Ms. McLaughlin is admitted to the bar in the state of California.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- › Formation & Tax Exempt Status
- › Nonprofit Governance & Ethics
- › Public Charities
- › Grantmaking & Social Investing
- › Social Enterprise
- › International Charitable Transactions & Operations

OUTSIDE THE OFFICE

As a Bay Area native, Ms. McLaughlin enjoys everything our community has to offer including foggy beaches, hikes in the redwoods, and wine tasting. You can find her marching in the Pride Parade, participating in alumni events and mentoring soon-to-be lawyers, or cheering on her son at a little league or AYSO soccer game.