

Truong Xe

Paralegal

EDUCATION

- B.A., Business Economics, and B.A., Social Policy and Public Service, University of California, Irvine, 2019
- Paralegal Certificate, University of California, Irvine, 2019

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Mr. Xe currently holds the title of Chief Financial Officer at Viet-American Youth Association, a 501(c)3 tax-exempt non-profit organization that hosts an annual arts and culture event and provides scholarship opportunities for high school students in the city of San Jose and surrounding cities.

He frequently volunteers at immigration and citizenship clinics through the Asian Law Alliance, a non-profit organization established in 1977 to provide equal access to the justice system for Asian Pacific Islander and low-income populations in the Silicon Valley.

SPEAKING & TEACHING

Mr. Xe enjoys speaking, writing, and teaching: In the past several years, he has worked with high school and college students to improve their leadership, communication, and financial literacy skills, and to provide underserved students with greater awareness of their options for careers in law.

PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining Adler & Colvin, Mr. Xe worked as a paralegal in the San Francisco Asset Securitization and Corporate Finance departments of Chapman and Cutler LLP, a Chicago-based law firm specializing in finance law.

CONTACT INFORMATION

 Tx@adlercolvin.com

 (415) 421-7555

 (415) 421-0712